

Open Donor: Reese

Staff Impression

Reese is tall with long, lean muscles from regular running. He has run multiple marathons and also enjoys playing basketball. He has thick, curly, dark brown hair and a fair complexion that makes his deep blue eyes pop. Reese has a strong jawline, high cheekbones and angular features. He is an extremely attractive individual, especially when he smiles, displaying straight white teeth and dimples.

Reese is a strong and dynamic individual. He comes from an athletic family and enjoys running and playing basketball himself. He also has an artistic side, playing multiple musical instruments, writing poetry, drawing and painting. He has a desire to protect those that cannot protect themselves, such as children and animals, which has led him to adopt a vegan diet. When asked why he wants to be a donor, Reese answered, “to help those who need it.” Reese is an extremely passionate and caring donor.
