

Open Donor: Walter

Staff impression:

Walter has bright sparkling blue eyes and a reddish tone to his medium brown hair. He has a gleaming smile that is almost always present on his face. Walter is upbeat, outgoing, witty, and fun. He is exuberant and enigmatic. He dresses in a casual and trendy fashion resembling a European style of dressing often.

Walter is very creative and maintains many outlets for art in his life. He avidly plays the piano and writes poetry. He is also very athletic and stays active snowboarding, hiking, swimming and biking. He has an athletic and toned physique easily maintained by his active lifestyle.

Currently obtaining his Masters degree in Library Sciences Walter stays very focused while balancing his life with other important aspects, such as family and friends. When asked what makes him unique his response was, "I'm most proud of my ability to enjoy life. I offer this answer because it sums up my personality. I consider my life very frequently, looking for ways to improve myself and to enjoy the way I live: I find ways to eat better; I look for new hobbies and talents I can use to entertain myself and others; I try new things and I celebrate traditions."
