Staff Impression

Ernesto has the smoothest, most wonderful complexion—truly flawless. All of his facial features are perfectly symmetrical, and his big, bright, dark-brown eyes light up when he smiles. Ernesto keeps himself in fantastic shape by rock-climbing and generally staying active. His zest for life beams from every inch of his very attractive face.

Looks aside, Ernesto genuinely cares about the world around him and maintains a great deal of empathy for all life. Stoic, calm, and yet capable of being very silly, he has an uncanny ability to put at ease everyone he encounters. Ernesto loves life, takes pride in his roots, and wants to make the environment in which he lives a better, more sustainable place. Ernesto's character is best summed up by something he once said: "I'm adamant about doing the right thing and respecting each other's freedoms."
