

Open Donor: Woodie

Staff impression:

Woodie is an outstanding musician. He loves music and uses his passion to drive his thriving career. He avidly plays the piano and keyboard, amongst many other instruments that he enjoys. Largely recognized in the world of Jazz this donor has amazing talent and ambition.

This donor is good-looking with medium brown hair and dark blue eyes. He has a very nice complexion and a welcoming and amicable smile. He is tall with a slender athletic physique. He dresses like a trendy musician, laid back with great style.

Woodie has a heart of gold and is such an uplifting person. He is quick to put a smile on your face if you're down, or make you laugh within the first minute of conversation. When asked why he wants to be a donor his response was: "I want to be a donor because family is something in life that I put above all else. It is incredibly important to me and I would like for others to experience that same joy."
