

Open Donor: Harrison

Staff Impression

Harrison stands at six feet even with an athletic build. He stays in shape by lifting and playing basketball, a sport he played at the collegiate level. Harrison has light brown hair and green/brown eyes that pair nicely with his fair complexion. He usually has a short beard that is kept neatly trimmed, giving him a more ruggedly handsome appearance. While Harrison normally comes in dressed very casually, we have seen how handsome he is in dressed in a suit.

Harrison is extremely confident with a sarcastic personality and great sense of humor. He seems to be at ease in any situation and is always ready to engage in some witty repartee. Harrison is extremely athletic as well as intelligent, earning a business degree but also minoring in engineering. We love how affectionately he talks about his son and how he strives to make the best of any situation. Harrison is a fun, outgoing and passionate donor that we believe would make a great match for any family.
