

Open Donor: Neil

Staff Impression

Neil is a unique donor with passion and drive. He has a well-balanced mixture of creativity and intelligence. Neil is always questioning why things are done the way they are and has an open mind so he can form his own thoughts and opinions. He is active in film and journalism with an interest in documentaries and hopes of directing a major television production. Neil is creative, thoughtful, outgoing and caring making him a wonderful donor with a sense of self that we rarely see in donors his age.

Neil is six feet tall with thick, wavy hair that we all envy. His brown hair and thick eyelashes really work to make his blue/green eyes pop. Neil has an adventurous personality and loves to go hiking and enjoy the outdoors. He also runs and swims on occasion, but most of his exercise comes from hiking and other outdoor activities. Neil has the laid-back attitude and look to match that attract people wherever he goes.
