

Open Donor: Patrick

Staff Impression

Patrick has a muscular build, a result of his very active lifestyle comprised of regular cardio and lifting weights. He has beautiful, blue eyes and thick, wavy blond hair to complement his medium skin tone that darkens with time in the sun. Patrick keeps his face clean shaven and his hair short, showing off the few freckles he has. All these features make Patrick an extremely good looking young man.

Patrick is very intelligent and dedicated, maintain a job while working through college. He is also incredibly kind and health conscious, wanting to help others especially in living healthy lives and improving the quality of their lives. Patrick is very athletic, playing a variety of sports with rugby as his favorite; he had scholarship offers until injury ended his competitive rugby career. He has a great sense of humor and it is easy to make him smile. Patrick is a truly incredible person, an amazing donor and we feel lucky to have him in the program.
