

12004 Conroy- Staff Impression

Conroy walks into our office with a laid back, friendly personality. His calm, sweet disposition pairs well with his sandy brown hair and striking green eyes. With a medium complexion and a light dusting of freckles Conroy is very handsome. His casual style along with an inviting smile suite his overall look.

Conroy has a witty sense of humor. He comes off as soft but well-spoken. Having achieved a master's degree in psychology Conroy is intelligent and thoughtful. He spends his free time playing the guitar and staying fit but doing Jiu Jitsu. Conroy also takes full advantage of the Pacific Northwest by being outdoors hiking, hunting, and fishing. If you are looking for a smart, good looking, level headed guy Conroy may be the donor for you!
