

Open Donor: Herman

Staff Impression

Herman has a slender build, resulting from an active lifestyle. He enjoys hiking, cycling, playing the cello, and drinking coffee. He has vibrant blue eyes, brown wavy hair, and a fair, but tan complexion. He keeps his hair short and face clean shaven. The most appreciable characteristic of Herman is his constant smile, sense of humor, and theatrical voice!

Herman is highly intelligent. He is pursuing his PhD in Bioengineering. Although incredibly busy, Herman has managed to find time to work as a substitute teacher and is an active member in a local orchestra. This donor is incredibly polite, a wonderful conversationalist, and capable of brightening anyone's day!
