

Kayden is a handsome, tall, and slim donor with shaggy, light brown hair. He has slender facial features and warm, brown-green eyes that match his kind and inviting personality.

Kayden is an intellectually gifted jack of all trades. When he is not busy pursuing advanced degrees in the field of Medicine, he invests his time in travel and his numerous hobbies. He is a talented cook and homebrewer who is also mechanically adept. He works on his own motorcycle which is his primary mode of transportation for his cross-country adventures. We think that this well-rounded donor is a great choice!