

Gael is tall with broad shoulders and an overall large build. He has a full head of thick, light brown hair; lovely blue eyes; and a smile with full lips and bright white, straight teeth. His complexion is fair with a few light freckles.

Gael is a friendly and talkative people person. His genuine kindness is the most noticeable feature of his personality. As a talented Bassist, Gael's greatest passion in life is music. He is a natural born performer whose family has instilled in him a love of theater and the arts. Gael lives by the motto, "Every day is an audition, so, put on your best self."