

Dirk has blonde hair, blue eyes, and a beaming smile. He tall with long limbs and a runner's build; he is an impressive marathon and bike commuter who likes to stay active outdoors.

Dirk is an outgoing and cheerful and optimistic donor who is genuine, caring, and always ready to help others and never shies away from striking up a conversation. He is an excellent problem solver and a team player. He is best described as a scholar who values learning in academics and from life experiences. Dirk is a charming and intelligent man of many talents which we think makes him an excellent donor choice!