

Open Donor: Ismael

Staff Impression

Ismael has an athletic build with olive skin that darkens in the sun. He has dark brown eyes that match his brown hair. He is extremely active, exercising regularly and playing a variety of sports, with his favorite being wrestling and Rugby. Ismael keeps his face clean shaven but is usually sporting a 5 o'clock shadow. He keeps his hair short, but you can still see the waves in it. Ismael is often smiling, putting on display full lips and straight white teeth.

Ismael is extremely outgoing and eager to strike up a conversation with anyone he meets. He is very laid back and easy going, making him very enjoyable company and a great friend. At the same time, Ismael is well traveled with an appreciation for art, history and his Jewish heritage. He has an affinity for science and medicine and hopes to someday cure a disease and win the Nobel Prize. Ismael also enjoys being creative with hobbies of playing instruments and music production. This combination makes Ismael a great and unique donor.
