

Diego is a handsome donor with a square face, full lips, and high cheekbones. He has dark brown hair; brown eyes; and smooth, medium-brown, skin. He is likable with an outgoing and adventurous personality, positive energy, and an inclusive nature.

The arts and activism are both very important to Diego. At university he studied Social Justice and Law, but his biggest passion is music. He is a natural performer who DJs at both local venues and various festivals. When he is not performing, his outgoing personality and social skills serve him well as an events and music promoter. Diego's goal is to continue making and performing music for people. His advice to others is "Live life to the fullest; never turn down a new opportunity."
