

Aseem Staff Impression

Aseem is both a critical thinker and a nurturer with a gentle nature. Hiking, swimming, and cycling keep Aseem active and fit. He has thick black wavy hair, dark brown eyes, medium brown skin, a square jaw, a pointed nose and full brows. He is a hard-working Software Engineer in the field of artificial intelligence and his goal for the future is to found his own tech company.

Travel and advanced education have given Aseem the opportunity to immerse himself in various cultures, and he has tremendous social awareness, empathy, and a deep-rooted desire to help others. Aseem has a strong set of morals and values most being honest, upright, and compassionate. Seeing the joy children bring to the lives of those around him is the biggest motivating factor in Aseem choosing to help others have children by being a donor with us.
