

Floyd Staff Impression

Floyd is average height with a larger, athletic frame, a direct result of his passion for weightlifting. He has thick, curly black hair that is always kept short and professional. Behind his smart glasses are bright, friendly dark brown eyes that compliment his warm welcoming smile. Floyd has an oval face shape, round cheeks, and a nice brow line.

Floyd is an attorney, with a JD and a bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice. When he's not busy working he enjoys a fantastic variety of hobbies and interests. Athletics is a big part of his life, football being his favorite; he even played in a national football tournament in Las Vegas as a child. Other sports he's interested in are baseball, basketball, soccer and running. He also enjoys music and art in his free time. Being a donor is important to Floyd because he comes from a close family and wants to be able to give others the opportunity to experience that unique joy.
