

Cicero (12369) Staff Impression

Cicero is a handsome donor with thick hair, flawless skin, high cheekbones, a well-proportioned nose, full brows, and a dimpled smile. He is lean and fit from a regular exercise regimen of strength training and conditioning. He is always tidily groomed and very well styled.

Cicero is energetic, outgoing, independent, hard-working, and determined. He is currently a business student and entrepreneur who designs clothing and runs his own fashion brand. He is working hard at turning his dreams of making it big in the fashion industry a reality. When not busy with academics and business, Cicero enjoys making art, whether it be photography, digital visual art, or music. We think this ambitious guy is a great donor option!
