

Juris (12585) Staff Impression

Juris is handsome and stylish with light features, thick hair, and a lean, muscular build. He has a heart-shaped face with a small nose, bright eyes, and a charming smile. He is a sharp dresser with a slightly quirky and effortlessly cool style.

Juris is intelligent, thoughtful, eloquent, hard-working, and socially aware. While he loves his current job recruiting volunteers for a nonprofit that provides crisis services, his career goal is to work in an academic setting as a professor and doing sociological research. Making use of his jovial and outgoing personality, he also moonlights as a trivia night host. In his free time, Juris enjoys cooking, running, weightlifting, volleyball, discussing current events, and voraciously reading. He is well-rounded, unique, and engaging, and we are thrilled to have him in our donor program!
