

Red has strawberry blond hair, blue eyes, and fair skin. He has a medium build and stands at 5'11". Red has a determined outlook, yet a laid-back personality. He is proud of the career he has established in nuclear power and hopes to advance in this field within the coming years. He enjoys enhancing his education, with history being one of his favorite subjects. Historical non-fiction is his favorite genre to read for fun!

Red grew up playing baseball and football, and currently plays in softball and beach volleyball leagues. Another passion of his is comedy. He loves watching comedy films and attends stand-up comedy shows whenever he can. Red is also well traveled, having visited South America, Australia, Europe, and Asia! His trip to Peru was one of his best, where he hiked and visited the Lost City of Machu Picchu. Red is a unique and well-rounded person that we are glad to have as a donor!
