

Raven (14146) Staff Impression

Raven has ocean blue eyes and a beaming smile that he shares with everyone he meets. He has wavy brown hair and a fair complexion. His tall, athletic physique is maintained by his active lifestyle. Raven did CrossFit for years, and now currently enjoys playing golf and lacrosse. He also has a creative spirit and dabbles in photography and videography for fun.

Raven is a thoughtful and giving person who interestingly was donor-conceived himself! He would like to give this same opportunity to others and so he chose to become a donor. Raven is proud of his achievements in his career, working in the field he loves. He hopes to support a family one day and be a loving father. Raven's unique qualities and caring personality make him a great donor!
