Lisbon (12530) Staff Impression

Lisbon is adorable and youthful with boy-next-door good looks. He has a rectangular face with high cheekbones, a subtly cleft chin, and a square jawline. He is fit and athletic with a lean build and well-proportioned limbs.

Lisbon is a young and exuberant Computer Science student who enjoys making video games, playing recreational sports, and traveling with family. After completing his degree, Lisbon hopes to begin his software engineering career building video games. He sees the world of games as a great creative outlet to build worlds, tell stories, and connect friends no matter where they are.