

Seneca (10493) Staff Impression

Seneca is tall and slender with broad shoulders, a lean body, a trim waist, and long limbs. He has a youthful but ruggedly handsome face with a strong jawline, square chin, gently arched brows, broad smile, and an adorable button nose. He has fair skin, and a glowing, flawless complexion.

Seneca is unique in that he is a keen analytical thinker who is also exceptionally outgoing with strong social skills. Seneca has an outgoing, sincere, and competitive personality. He loves playing board games, video games, and watching sports with friends and family. He and his sister grew up having a strong friendship with each other and they had strong role models in their hardworking and compassionate parents who passed on their values. He is currently a mechanical engineering grad student whose post-college goal is to embark on a career in the industry and start a family of his own. We think Seneca's intelligence, work ethic, and charming personality will take him far in life and we are pleased to have him in our program!
