

Eureka 10618

Eureka is a creative, compassionate, lively guy and is such a joyful addition to our program. He has curly, strawberry blonde hair and hazel eyes, and a defined jawline. Eureka is a man of many creative talents, but especially music. He is fond of playing guitar and piano, producing, and composing his own music, and performing. Apart from music, Eureka enjoys freelance photography, writing, and going where life takes him.

In addition to his creative spirit, Eureka is also very social, open-minded, and intelligent. He has a determined and focused personality while maintaining a lofty outlook on life, so it comes as no surprise that he would enjoy life as a music teacher in the future. His empathetic demeanor and desire to create a positive impact in others' lives are enlightening, and we are grateful to have him in our program!
