

Amari (12661) Staff Impression

Amari has adorable features with an oval face, broad smile, a small nose, arched brows, and large eyes. His dark hair and eyes contrast nicely with his fair skin and rosy cheeks. He is slender with well-proportioned limbs.

Amari is a software engineer at a major tech company who wants to build a start-up company and become a computer science teacher toward the end of his career. He is very bubbly, outgoing, and enthusiastic with a youthful personality and optimistic outlook. He is a fearless adventurer who loves travel, experiencing new cultures, meeting new people, and rock-climbing. He is a great storyteller and engaging conversationalist. Amari is a very likable guy!
