

Song Staff Impression

Song is a wonderful combination of looks and intelligence. He is just under 6ft tall with a lean, athletic build, maintained with activities such as swimming and hiking. Song has inquisitive brown eyes and a thick head of dark brown hair that he keeps short and styled. He has a clear, light complexion and lovely full pink lips.

Song is a true intellectual with a bachelor's degree in computer science and PhD in Electrical Engineering. He is currently a research scientist in Quantum Computing. His pursuit of scientific research is what drives him, and he hopes to someday make a contribution of his own. As an only child he has a strong connection to his parents and the value they placed on education, hard work and integrity.
