

Staff Impression Taras 12777

Taras 12777 is compassionate, easy-going, and enjoyable to be around! His eyes are very kind, and are a light blue green, sometimes reflecting gray. Smiles lines surround the lower part of his deep-set eyes, a perfect addition to his already inviting personality. He has high cheek bones, with plump cheeks and a wide, straight smile. He is extremely fit with a medium build and lean, as an avid cyclist and windsurfer this makes sense!

Taras 12777 enjoys a wide variety of hobbies, from cycling and skiing to reading and piano. He is a sweet, kind person who is passionate about becoming a father and husband. He is a software engineer that aspires to continue changing the world through his career. Taras is dedicated not only to his career and pursuing his dreams, but his wife and family, and that says so much about the work ethic and care that he puts forward every day. Taras' curiosity to learn new things and confidence in his future is what makes us so excited to have him in our program!
