

Rennison 14429 Staff Impression

Rennison has the classic surfer look with shaggy blonde hair, hazel eyes, and fair skin that gets a light tan with time spent in the sun. He has a square face with well-proportioned, symmetrical features, tidy brows, and a narrow nose with a high, straight bridge. He is exceptionally muscular with broad shoulders and well-muscled limbs. His athletic physique is quite impressive!

Rennison is known for his positive attitude, empathy, and strong work ethic. Rennison holds a degree in Communication Sciences and he currently works in consulting as an account manager. His goal is to save up money to buy a house with a nice space to grow a garden. Outside of work, Rennison is an adventurous soul who finds solace in nature and outdoor activities such as swimming, biking, and surfing. He also has a special passion for roller hockey, and he loves the thrill of playing in a recreational league. Rennison comes from a family of three siblings and maintains a great relationship with each of them. He lives close to his oldest sister and has a wonderful bond with her children. Rennison feels blessed in life to have good health and a loving family, and he is excited to be able to help provide a strong start for others building families of their own.
