

Goran 14288 Staff Impression

Goran is a unique donor whose personality is a well-balanced blend of intelligence, quirkiness, positivity, and adventure. He is tall and slender with a typical runner's build that he developed by running cross country and participating in marathons. He has beautiful large, hooded, green eyes that are complemented by light brown, sun-kissed, straight hair. He has an oval face and fair skin with many freckles. Goran has thin lips and a genuinely happy smile.

Goran is currently pursuing a degree in mechanical engineering and has a career goal of creating large-scale projects to preserve nature and to use resources more sustainably. A passion for protecting the environment is a persistent theme in Goran's life that is inspired by his time in nature. He obtained his open-water dive license at a young age and soon began exploring kelp forests. He has also enjoyed snorkeling and exploring the coast while on a volunteer trip in Honduras. You can truly feel the change he wants to be a part of! Goran is empathetic, driven, and filled with compassion and grit.
