Pueo Staff Impression

An exciting new addition to our donor program, Pueo is as kind, giving and compassionate as he is intelligent and good looking. He has a lovely olive complexion, courtesy of his Hawaiian lineage. Pueo has an oval face, full lips, and the best smile. Complimenting his deep drown eyes is his gorgeous and thick straight black hair.

Having completed in education, receiving a degree in mechanical engineering, Pueo intends to use his skills to help create sustainable systems in product development to serve a broader range of those in need. Pueo a strong relationship with his family and extended community and takes pride in acts of service for those closest to him. He is a genuine and empathetic person and believe he is a great choice for anyone searching for their perfect donor.
