

Santiago 12775

Santiago is an optimistic, conversational, and all around wonderful person to be around! He has wavy, brown hair and kind, brown eyes. We love hearing about his goals in life, including marrying his lovely fiancée! Santiago has a sweet, gentle soul and it is clearly displayed when you meet him. We admire how diligent he has proved himself to be regarding his education, and his driven attitude is inspiring to us all, as his goal is to someday become an athletic director.

When he is not working or going to school, Santiago enjoys many sports such as football, hockey, and basketball. He also enjoys other relaxing outdoor activities such as hiking and fishing. Santiago is sure to impress you with his perseverent outlook on life, we are grateful to have him in our program!
