

Makran 14415 Staff Impression

Makran is a captivating individual with a unique blend of Irish and Persian heritage. He stands tall at an impressive 6'3", possessing a slim and muscular build that exudes strength and confidence. One of Makran's standout features is his thick and curly long hair, framing his face naturally. Makran's full lips contribute to his charismatic and expressive smile. His square face structure adds a touch of boldness to his overall appearance, and his light brown, honey-colored eyes add an air of warmth and sincerity while complementing his medium olive-toned skin that radiates a healthy glow.

Makran is not only an impressive individual physically but also intellectually. As a structural engineering student, he delves into the intricate world of design and construction, displaying a keen intellect and passion for shaping the world around him. Beyond that, he embraces the exhilarating lifestyle of an avid surfer. His love for surfing takes him to various corners of the globe, in hopes of visiting Indonesia one day to surf! Makran is undoubtedly a social butterfly, thriving in the company of others. His outgoing nature allows him to effortlessly connect with people from all walks of life. He is also in the midst of spiritual exploration as he is currently engrossed in reading the Bible.