Andover stands tall at 5'11" with an ocher skin tone that radiates warmth. His thick, straight dark brown hair adds a touch of richness to his overall appearance, framing his face that lights up with a pleasant smile. Andover carries himself with an inviting demeanor that effortlessly draws people in. One of his most endearing features is the same youthful sparkle in his eyes that he has carried since childhood.

Andover, who is fluent in Tagalog, has a heart as big as his favorite animal – the panda bear. During his spare time, you'll often find him engaged in writing, and crafting stories that showcase his creative spirit. What truly sets Andover apart is his genuine passion for the environment; he strongly believes in the importance of preserving our planet. His personality is a delightful blend of tranquility and outgoing vibes, making Andover not just a great donor but also someone who dreams of becoming a cherished member of his community.
