

Tenon stands tall at 6'1", possessing a commanding presence matched only by his medium build. He has chestnut brown hair and deep ocean blue eyes. Notably, he boasts hands that are larger than life, a feature he himself acknowledges proudly. His Roman nose and freckles sprinkled across his medium fair skin give him a youthful charm.

Tenon, a carpenter by trade and a self-proclaimed "sports guy" by heart. Despite his natural introverted nature, he possesses a knack for bringing joy to those around him by telling jokes. Raised by parents who instilled in him a "never give up attitude," Tenon credits this for his determined nature. You can find Tenon strumming away on his guitar, a passion he has cultivated for the past decade. But his true weakness lies with his big sweet tooth, which he indulges in KitKats whenever the opportunity arises.

Fun Fact: Tenon's favorite animal is none other than the jumping spider, showing his appreciation for the curious and unexpected.
