

Aslan 13016 Staff Impression

Aslan stands out as a unique individual who leaves a lasting impression. Standing at 5 feet 11 inches tall, he has a medium build, dark brown hair, and brown eyes, complemented by fair skin with light freckles. He has handsome, rugged features with a square chin and angular jawline that are balanced out by a small, adorable nose, and charming dimples.

Professionally, Aslan is a scientist who studied biology at the university level. He envisions advancing in his career in science while also nurturing a dream of opening his own arcade in the next 5 to 10 years and eventually open a ranch and summer camp. Apart from his professional pursuits, Aslan showcases an athletic side, having wrestled at the university level and played four varsity sports in high school. Aslan describes himself as eccentric, free-spirited, and wild. His diverse interests range from martial arts, such as Jiu Jitsu, to repairing old arcade games, reflecting his analytical thinking and technical skills. A fan of indie arcade-type music and fantasy-adventure genres in movies and books, Aslan's passions and interests are diverse. Aslan's multifaceted personality and diverse interests contribute to the vibrant and dynamic character he brings to our donor program.
