Deiver 10806 Staff Impression

Deiver has a distinctive appearance with striking red hair, black eyes, and fair skin. He has a square face with a rounded nose, full lips and cheeks, and a square chin. He has a medium build with broad shoulders and a muscular upper body.

Currently juggling a dual role as a flight instructor and a student working towards an additional flight instructor license, Deiver is both passionate and skillful in teaching. Beyond aviation, he finds joy in sports, particularly soccer, volleyball, and basketball, showcasing his athleticism. In his downtime, Deiver immerses himself in various interests, from listening to a wide range of music genres to enjoying outdoor activities like hiking. His recent interest in learning French and his knack for understanding the language showcase his commitment to expanding his horizons. Deiver's strengths lie in his exceptional communication skills, making him a natural leader and fostering strong teamwork. Deiver's journey reflects a combination of passion, optimism, and a commitment to making a positive impact on the lives of others.