

Latimer 14587 Staff Impression

Latimer is a tall, strawberry-blond mischief-maker with a knack for turning heads—and not just because he’s 6’2”. With a hint of a goatee shadow and a smirk that says he’s always up to something, Latimer’s green eyes twinkle with a mix of curiosity and humor. His slightly upturned nose gives him a perpetual air of cheeky confidence, while his cleft chin adds a dash of rugged charm.

Latimer is a full-time student with big dreams of becoming a land developer, though he's known more for his quick wit than his blueprints. With an easygoing personality and a knack for turning even the most mundane moments into a joke, he's the kind of guy who makes everything feel like a breeze. A Gaelic football enthusiast, Latimer is just as likely to be found on the field as he is watching a match, daydreaming of a trip back to Ireland to reconnect with family. Always thinking outside the box, Latimer’s the creative joker who keeps everyone on their toes.