

Rankin 18101 Staff Impression

Rankin stands at 5'11", with a medium athletic build that suggests he's always up for adventure but doesn't live in the gym. His chin-length dark brown hair, often tousled from running around, falls neatly into a slight widow's peak. Blue-green eyes, deep-set and hooded, seem to twinkle and a sharp jawline frames his perpetual 5 o'clock shadow. His Greek-shaped nose has a slight upturn and flare, making him look perpetually curious, if not a little mischievous. Rankin's personality matches his look—he's quick with a joke, always ready with a witty comment.

Rankin is a chiropractor but puzzle master at night. When he's not cracking backs, he's cracking codes and solving riddles, always on the hunt for his next mental challenge. Despite being super health-conscious and avoiding processed foods like the plague, he's got a not-so-secret sweet tooth for chocolate, especially chocolate—his only dietary weakness! Rankin is always on the move—whether he's diving into the ocean for a swim, scaling cliffs on a rock climb, or spiking volleyballs on the beach. His energy is contagious, and he's the kind of guy who will invite you on a "quick" hike that turns into an all-day adventure.
