

Damari 18118 Staff Impression

Damari is a sweet man who stands at 5'9". This Greek Orthodox guy is full of surprises, starting with the fact that he's ambidextrous—talk about versatility! His dark brown eyes are deep and expressive, perfectly complementing his strong straight nose and distinctive cleft chin. Damari's smile has a way of putting everyone at ease, radiating warmth and friendliness in every setting.

Damari is a marketing pro by day; he's just wrapped up his master's degree and has his sights set on climbing the corporate ladder. Hailing from a big, tight-knit Greek family, Damari knows a thing or two about tradition and togetherness. When he's not strategizing or hanging out with his crew, you might catch him playing the cello—yes, he's got musical chops! A proud foodie, Damari's heart (and stomach) leans toward a Mediterranean diet, though he's always game to explore new flavors. To balance it all out, he enjoys hitting the pavement for a good run!
